SENIOR TRIP

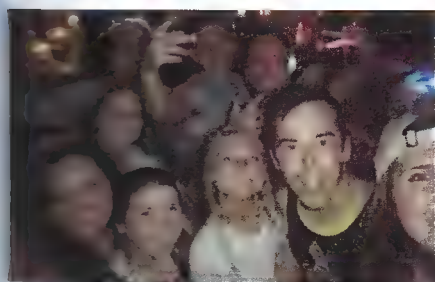

All eyes were on Maroa-Forsyth High School SENIORS as they took their senior trip to Kirkwood Lodge. Although it was a culture shock (photo to the left shows), the seniors had the time of their lives. From dancing, running from snakes, swimming in the pool, beating the teachers in go-karts and mini golf, and getting pushed in the lake, this is definitely a weekend the seniors will remember for a lifetime.

LAKE OF THE OZARKS

GRADUATION

CLASS OF 2015

ALL EYES WERE ON our graduating seniors as they walked across the gym floor one final time. Laughs were shared and tears shed during the ceremony. Class presidents, JT Grider and Matthew Nalefski, included Jimmy Fallon style Thank You Notes. The wonderful valedictorians, Emma Baldwin, Jairon Ritter, Andrew Gonsalves, Mitchell Reeser, and Brooke Stuckey gave their inspiring speeches. The choir sang Our Greatest Journey written and composed by Mr. Weisenborn when he was a senior in high school. The senior video, titled "Memories," was wonderfully made by Kassidy Cuttill. Finally the seniors walked across the stage to receive the piece of paper they had been working the past 4 years to earn. The Class of 2015 will cherish the memories they have made at MFHS as they step into the next chapter of their lives.

Congrats Seniors!

All eyes were on Maroa-Forsyth High School junior and senior girls as they participated in this years powder puff game. They spent the previous Sunday decorating t-shirts, cooking out, and then finally practicing for the game. Coach Applebee and Coach Cluver helped make the food, and of course ref the game. No shock here, seniors come out on top winning 36-0. This game added great excitement to homecoming week 2014.

Eagles (Rantoul High School). Although the Eagles had more athleticism in every position, the Trojans had an almost flawless game, defeating the Eagles 60-14.

2014 Maroa-Forsyth 10-4

Seniors:

In the fall of 2014, ALL EYES were on the Maroa-Forsyth football team. After being stranded in the old Okaw-Valley conference they were forced to schedule many new schools this year. This year's team was led by our Seniors: OL/LB Arik Inda, RB Montarius Howell, WR/LB Mitchell Reeser, OL/DL Dev Boline, WR/DB Sam Stogsdill, OL/DL Jairon Ritter, WR/DB David Whitacre, and QB/LB Jack Hockaday. These seniors and the rest of the players were able to lead the football team deep into the playoffs and straight into the State Championship game. Despite falling one game short, the student body and the community of Maroa-Forsyth are proud of the effort put forth by the football team this year and the seniors' continued effort over the last 4 years! Playing in the State Championship was a bittersweet end for our seniors!

Always was an MVP during their outstanding season. This season the girls discovered they had something special and it didn't take long to notice. They won 3 out of the 4 tournaments they went to. They went undefeated in the conference, and won a regional and sectional title. Bailey Mason, Kira Jackson, and Kylie Rudsinski were also awarded all tournament team at Quincy. After a hard fought, SUPER-PACKED, super sectional game, the Lady Trojans ended their season with only 3 losses. The volleyball team couldn't have asked for a more perfect season with the best fans.

This year all eyes were on the Lady Trojan softball team. Over the previous years the softball program has made a name for itself by having tremendous seasons, with tremendous records. Although this was a rebuilding year and with college bound Brenna Finck out, the team still managed to have a great season! Even after playing in the tough, new Okaw-Valley Conference the girls finished the season with a record of 15-8. Also, the girls won the REGIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP which MF softball hasn't won in 3 years! The team had such a fun year and improved their Spanish vocabulary everyday!

This year, the Trojanettes had a very successful season! During December and January, they competed against other schools in IDTA and IHSA dance competitions. The girls placed first and third at their first competition in Charleston. The next weekend they placed third in IHSA in Villa Grove. At sectionals, the girls ended a fabulous season with seventh place. With another great season ahead, they plan to give their best and go to state!

Events from this season:

The MFHS Cheerleaders started their season off with a very successful and fun week at ICA cheer camp. The girls got blue ribbons for every evaluation, they were awarded the Bandana (The Spirit Award), they were given the Leadership Award as well as Superior Squad, and they also came in 2nd place for Camp Champs & the Extension Competition. Ja'Rhea Bussey, Lily Johnston, and Morgan Ground made All-American, and Ja'Rhea and Lily also got the Pin-It-Forward award.

The MFHS cheerleaders had so much fun teaching the little girls stunts, cheers, and jumps at Mini Cheer Camp to perform at the following Friday night football game!

The girls had an unforgettable experience and cheered their hearts out for the boys at the IHSA Football State Championship.

In the summer the girls participated in Race For The Cure by cheering on all of the survivors who walked and ran that morning.

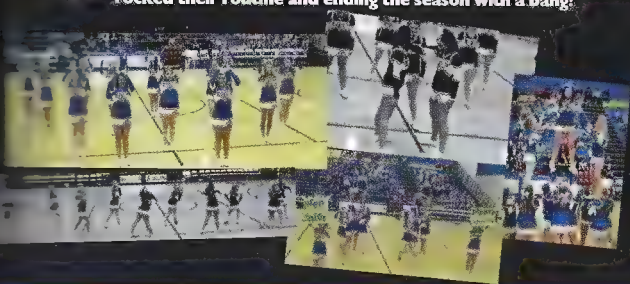

The Cheerleaders had a blast putting together 80's Night for basketball season and it turned out great!

The cheerleaders supported Breast Cancer and all the survivors on "Pink" during football season by cheering in pink and walking around the track during halftime in memory of loved ones and in support of our survivors.

Basketball Senior Night was bittersweet for Ja'Rhea and Loren, but the girls rocked their routine and ending the season with a bang!

“ West Side Story, a musical adaption Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet, transplants the young lovers to the violent streets of New York where they are doomed by social conditions they cannot control. The powerful, swiftly moving plot is driven by trubulence and tension. The musical covers a period of only two days; scenes blend into one another as the inevitable progression of events unfold.

The Jets are fiercely loyal, proud of who and what they are, nd determined to keep their turf (the neighborhood). The Sharks are just as loyal, proud and detiemined to establised their identity by staking out their claim to turf in the neighborhood. The authorities-police, social workers, parents-dont's realize the intensity of the fued, the depth of the hostiity among these “kids”. They ar too willing to be fooled bu superficially acceptable behavior on demand. Bjut just as these teenagers are capable of lovin with a suprisingly deep tender passion, they are equally capable of hating with an uncontrollable, volcanic passion that boils over and explodes. The result is a tragedy.

All eyes were on Maroa-Forsyth juniors and seniors as they took on prom 2015. Prom committee threw a new twist this year by having a band instead of a DJ. Students first walked the runway at Grand March, then went to the Grand Palace to eat dinner and dance, and then finished the night at post prom at the DISC. Tori Weis and Jairon Ritter won this years prom queen and king title. This was definitely a prom that students will always remember.

The 2014-2015 yearbook staff spent a great year creating the best possible yearbook! From first picking our theme to spending countless hours creating and editing the pages, we have had a very successful year. A special thanks to our staff to never disappointing and working hard as a team to meet deadlines. We would also like to thank Ms. Perion for working hard to make sure made our deadlines and being a great adviser for the second, and final, year. We wish her the best of luck next year! ALL EYES WERE ON the yearbook staff as they created a wonderful yearbook, and all eyes will continue to be on the staff as they continue to create wonderful yearbooks!
